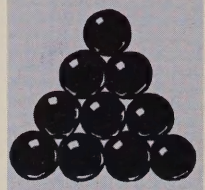
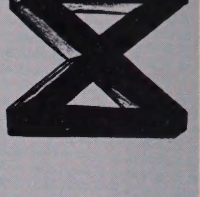
Mendel Catholic High School Chicago, Ill.

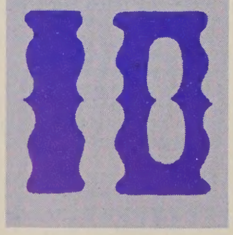
TOLLE LEGE
TOLLE LEGE





Introduction

Entering confidently another decade more decisive than the last, Mendel Catholic High School of the Augustinian Fathers, reviews its dedicated past, picturing a theme of living growth wedded to the men and names who made in ten years time what Mendel is today. The debt we owe to history for the most will go untold, but new decades only rise on today's foundation stones.



The purpose, then, of this year's Monarch is to mark and make it known that the ten year milestone has been past, by tying up our bundle with the number ten, but remembering all along that the year past was the first of a fresh, new decade.

MENDEL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

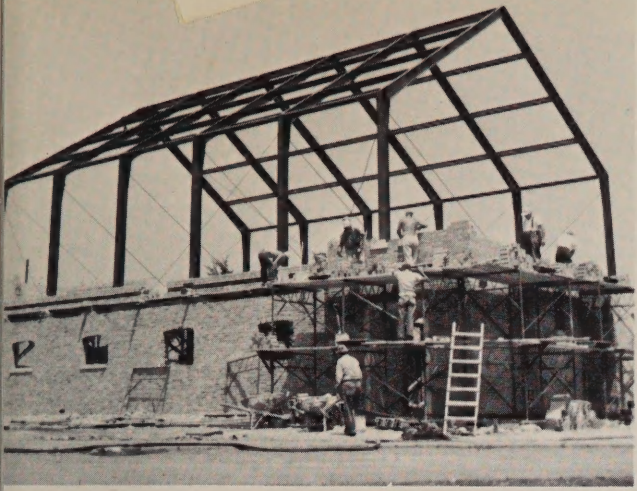
He Came . . .

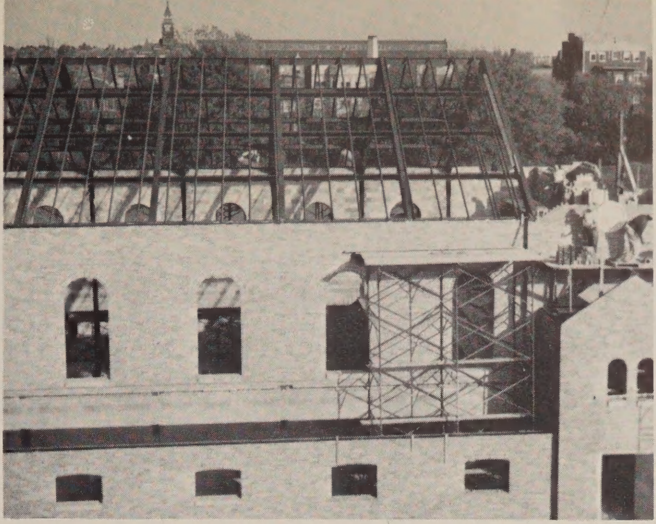
MENDEL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

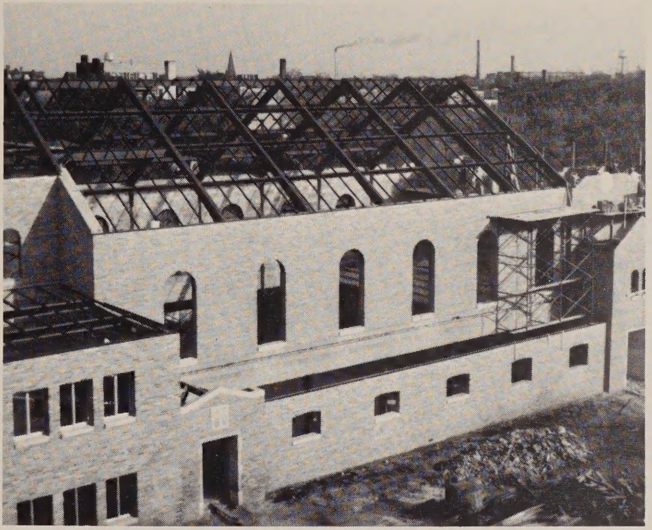
He Saw . . .

The late Samuel Cardinal Stritch made an earnest request for extended Catholic education for young men . . . resolutely, the priest-teachers of the American, midwestern province of the Order of St. Augustine responded as with ears sensitive to the urgent need . . . purchasing the 40 acres and the original main buildings of the Pullman Free School from the trustees of the Pullman estate . . . and what the Cardinal came to bless has borne the blessing well.

He Blessed . . .







. . . for chapel girders
crossed the skies in '53
to bring a King's court and holy sanctuary to hallow the grounds . . .

. . . and to give within its walls the peace and heart,
that alone makes a Mendel
gentleman sure of his source of strength and life . . .

While also Level upon level the monastery rose in
'53 to house the Augustinian teaching Fathers . . .

AUGUSTINIAN FATHERS

. . . and through here will pass in all the years of Mendel, Augustinian priests who inherit Mendel's legacy of spirited, searching, and scientific education . . . toward the sure, gradual up-building of a man, his life and his times . . .

. . . with elbow room to spare, since where there is real life,
. . . as well as learning, faith, and love . . . no empty space or opening can be left unfilled.

MENDEL GYMNASIUM

feat as human as the men who place
and set them.
Even moreso is the edifice their

. . . the further,
higher rise of Mendel's star
in the daylight of another decade.

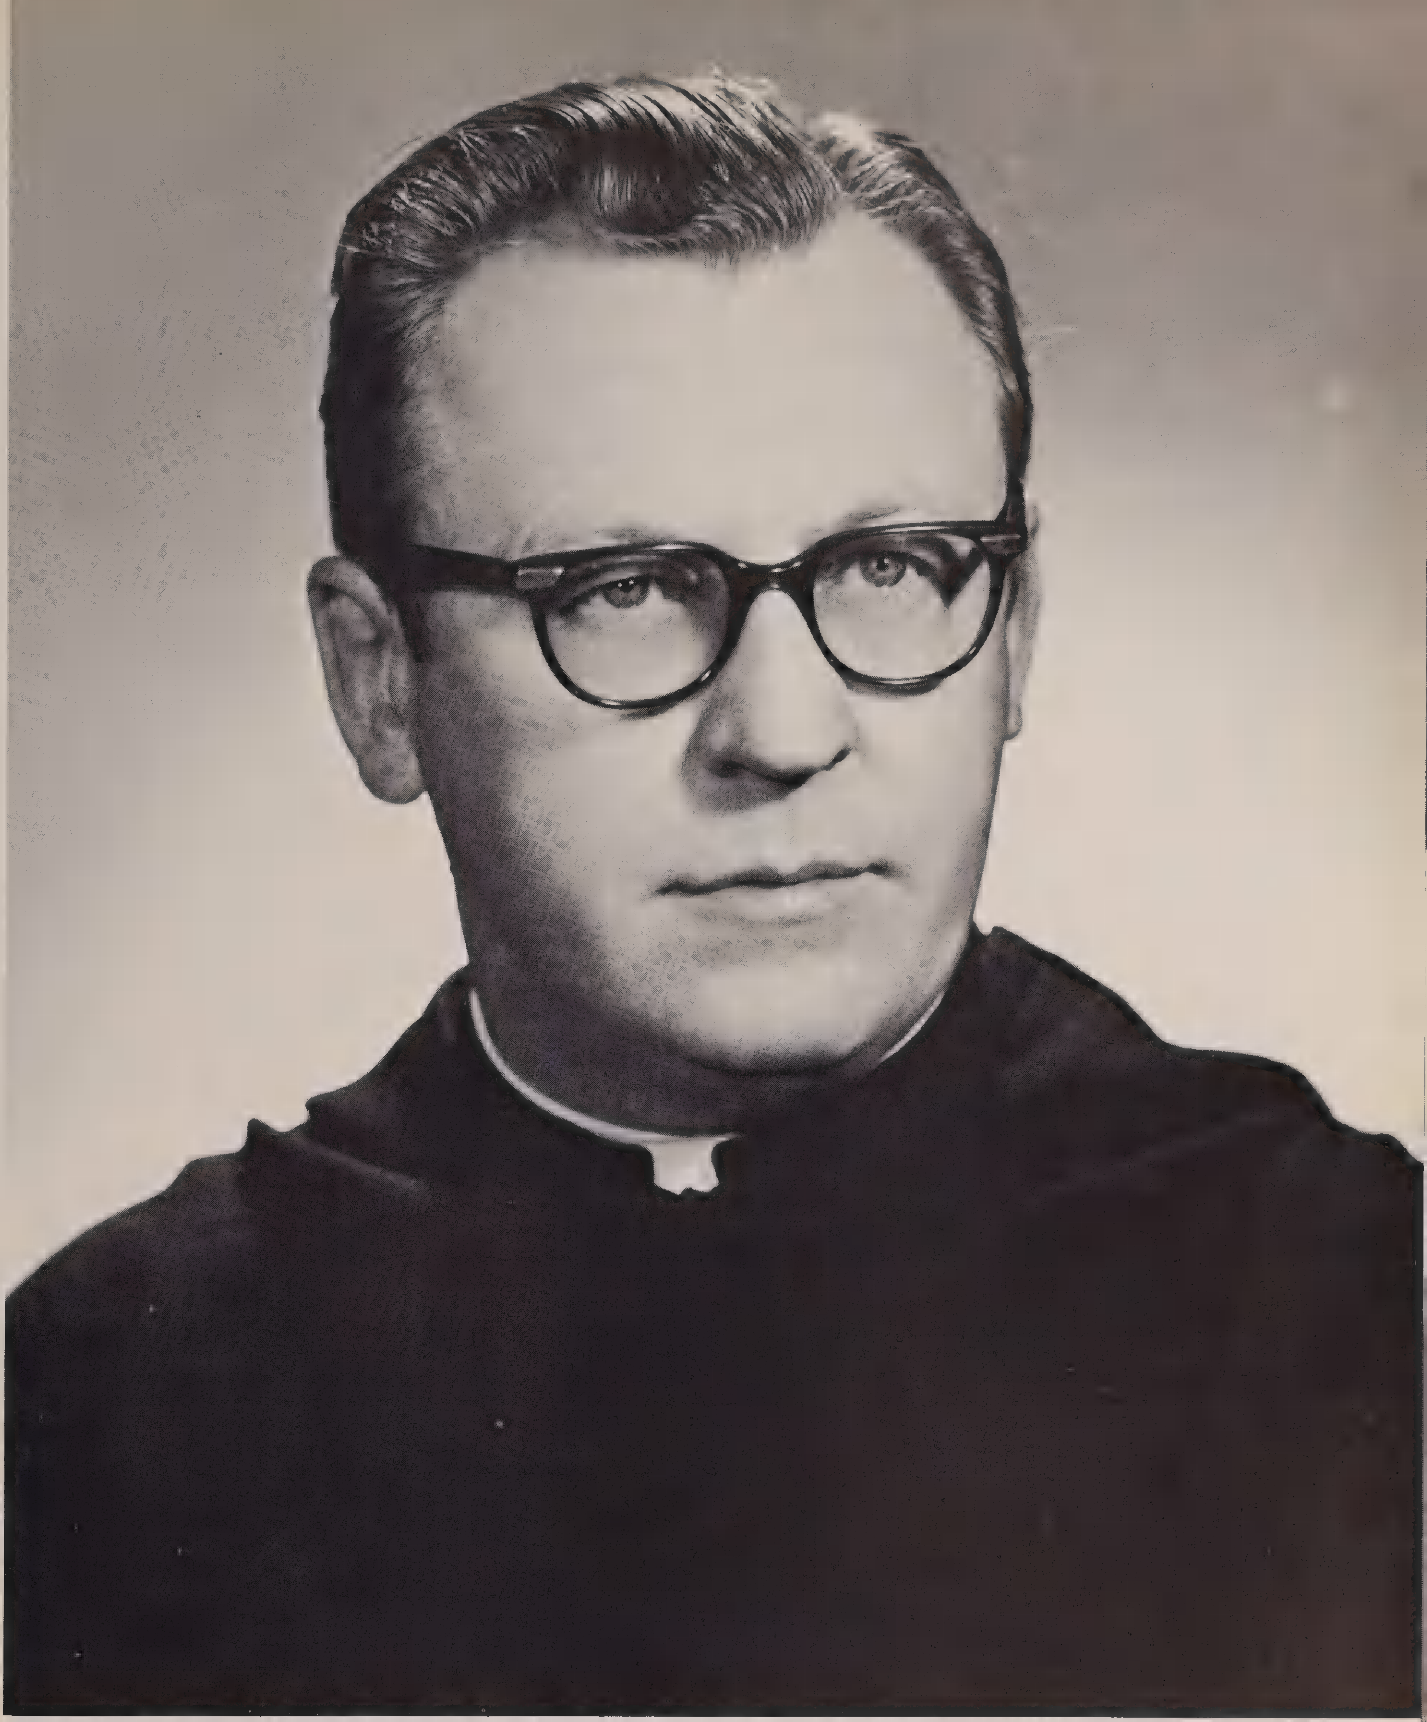
Dedication

Ten years time has made the difference between desolate thin prospects and progressive far-sightedness. To the two men who stamped out Mendel's metal in its first years, the Monarch is appropriately dedicated . . . to the Very Rev. John L. Seary, O. S. A., and to Rev. Francis X. Cavanaugh, O. S. A. . . . since "all good history must include a knowledge of the men who transformed mere circumstances into human experience" . . . the human experience which is met in a school of Mendel's cut and mettle, is a merit and asset to a young man's life.

The First Rector

The Very Rev. John L. Seary, O.S.A., headed the venture that is Mendel when its history first began in the fall of 1951. Other firsts and first places, he has held, administered and loved have been the rector's post in Rockford, Illinois; as First Prior of St. Monica's Seminary, Holland, Michigan; Headmaster of Cascia Hall, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Provincial of the Augustinian Province of Our Mother of Good Counsel. Perhaps in none does he place more stock and feeling than the Mendel he helped to found. With good reason, then, the Monarch chooses to cite Father's labor in behalf of Mendel as befits a priest and educator.



The Second Rector

Mendel's sprint down its second mile of history took impetus from the organizing efforts of Rev. Francis X. Cavanaugh, O.S.A. His background in the Augustinian education field is impressive: Bachelor of Arts, Villanova University; Bachelor of Science in Education, Villanova, where for a time he was a professor; Vice-Rector of Cascia Hall, Tulsa; Vice-Rector of St. Rita, 1952—1956; Rector of Mendel, 1956—1959 and presently prior of Austin High, Detroit. Well known are Fr. Cavanaugh's efforts in sharpening to keen edge Mendel's system of academic achievement. The Monarch now acknowledges his contribution in this twin dedication.

Principal

Rev. Martin J. O'Neill, O.S.A.

Before taking his place in the forming of Mendel's history, Father has, since his ordination, been actively engaged in Augustinian educative enterprises. After finishing his graduate work at the Catholic University of America toward a Master's Degree in Sociology, Father was assigned to St. Rita High School, in Chicago. He next was appointed to the first faculty upon the founding of St. Monica Seminary in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. By Provincial appointment, he was assigned for a three year term as Procurator of Cascia Hall, Tulsa, Oklahoma. And for the next twelve years he acted in the capacity of Prefect of Studies and Assistant Headmaster at Cascia Hall. Since 1959 he has held the office of Rector at Mendel. Under his capable and experienced leadership, Mendel has continued to advance in its contribution for the education of Catholic youth.

These are the men who must watch the phases of administration immediately under their purview, in order to facilitate, expedite and insure Mendel's smoothness of operation at many levels of concern: scholastic, judicial, directive, financial. To their desks come the daily headaches and under their constant attention and close cooperation, the structure of the school set-up is maintained, furthered and kept fortified.

Battering at and beseiging the gates of learning . . . what else?

The Mendel Way of a Mendel Day

In the Mendel plan for bringing young men to a knowledge of themselves and the world, the shots you see here are steps on the way . . .

At right: "Jugs are jugs . . . but why such malicious delight?"

Below: Hardly enough room for a trot.

Mr. Hartmann gives a science project a close going over today.

History . . . while it is in the making . . . as on the day of the orbital flight . . . is brought into Mendel.

Student Senate

The worthies shown here . . . so casually senatorial and neatly sartorial . . . represent a cream-gathered and, for the most part, a crew-cut cross-section of the student body . . . "duly chosen by democratic election in the constitutional manner" . . . by their buddies, that is . . . to represent them in the front office and, as channels carrying out school business, to do the necessary leg work.

National Honor Society

Stepping up all the way ... not only in pains-taking study but in practical service and prominent leadership within their class as well ... such are the credits of those upgraded to membership in the National Honor Society ... a distinction of note understandably desired by the men of Mendel.

Mendel Music Association — Certainly the group who total the greatest number of "flying hours" it can safely be said, is the everactive Music Association. From midautumn to late spring there is little let-up in their labors, plans and projects. Early and late on a given day, some segment of Mendel's musical set-up is put in motion by Mendel's tireless Music Association.

Debating Society

For being only a mere two years old Mendel's debating team is beginning to show fine feather even for the fledgling team it is . . . having stretched its wings in major tilts and contests as a challenging newcomer to the Chicago Catholic Forensic League, and gaining recognition in the University of Illinois Invitational Tournament and in the Midwest Forensic League Tournament . . . This year debating expanded to an intramural activity to give more Mendel men a chance to gain sureness in their thought and expression.

Monarch

"Yearbooks are people, too," it once was said (by me) . . . not just because people populate its pages, but because it takes all sorts of people, bumping and lumping their heads together . . . to make a yearbook what it is . . . here, too, is where responsibility can sprout: responsible for every last initial (even though all Williams are called Bill) . . . Few there are who realize what training a yearbook gives and offers . . . if one has that keen interest in Mendel to see each year recorded . . . picturewise . . . in a way that makes the year come clearly back.

Biology Club

Gregor Mendel must himself have poked around in pea-pods and prodded the daylights out of butterflies before he came up with any law . . . in the same inquisitive that is the sign of searching science . . . and of a club whose aim is to open up young eyes to the world's wonders . . . for example in its ecology of our own lagoon: a study of all the living things found there.

Math Club

Mendel's answer to the Academie Francais de Mathematique may not match the latter for the wizardry of their work but of their formality and hauteur we have caught a more pleasant semblance . . . operating on their own initiative mostly (itself a beneficial attitude) . . . comprised exclusively of seniors . . . the only club making that claim outside of the Seniors Smoking Union . . . these men pursue the field of math further than just the classroom situation.

The Monarchs' football rocket looked fairly launched in its pre-season play . . . the Mendel men wrecked the Ramblers from Gordon Tech (their engineering may be better) by tallying a 12—2 decision over their North Side rival . . . and at Lane Tech Stadium by out-doing a dazed De Paul squad by an uncontested 22—0.

Opening the season itself at Eckersall . . . the Mt. Carmel caravan rolled to a 14—0 halt over our big team . . . and considering the close rivalry the score was only part of the defeat.

Out after lions' meat hoofing around as the Leo nine (use dictionaries on puns), Mendel's own Monarchs pulled to a 12—0 lead, only to slip back to a 12—14 lag at the half. A quick T.D. by Mendel was mainly smashed by two T.D.'s of Leo . . . the scale tipped 28—18 in favor of the felines.

Trying to buck and bronco-bust the St. Rita Mustangs was not to be an easy job, in spite of what will was there . . . Mendel's third successive set-back was a convincing 26—6.

The load of the Loyola defeat (22—6) could only be somewhat lightened by a go-go 103 yard run out of his own end zone by Pete Andreotti. It only takes one sparkling, shifty play to make a game worth while.

In the Homecoming victory the Monarchs hit their pay dirt in the regular season. The shaggy, scraggly Wolves from Ignatius way were duly skinned 26—0.

With chins to the grindstone and the ground . . . to salvage what could be saved of a fast-waning season . . . and to slack a hunger for something more than Rice . . . mud covered Shewbridge Stadium proved to be no place for our lighter team to take another win . . . yet only a slim six points edged us out when a Brother Rice Crusader galloped eighty yards (for his lady-love, we wonder). There still are goodly rivals in them 'thar Beverly Hills.

All in all there have been better seasons, "percentage wise" as the books all say, with three wins outweighed by five losses. But never think that Mendel does not still have a taste for top-flight ("good show") football — real Monarch style.

Coach Joe McGee calls on his spotters for aerial information for his next defensive move. ("How bout castling on the king's side . . .")

Lean hard, line, that-a-way; but it looks like everyone is watching the hand-off anyway. (Mr. Quarterback, there were U-2 spies.)

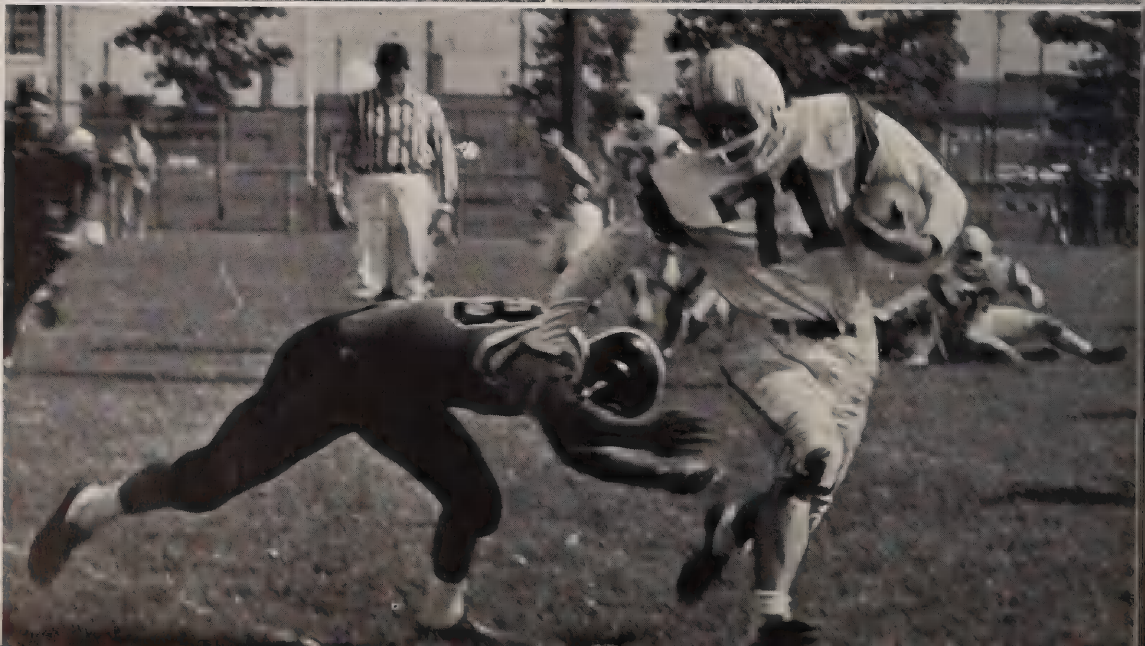
In an absorbing study of concentration and concern, the coaches, spotters, doctor and fans all catch the player's "what-to-ya-do-in-a-case-like-that" hand-gesture.

"If that guy on the ground would only leave go me, maybe I'd get someplace," says Pete Andreotti off on another long gallop.

Fr. Grace seems to have gotten off a good one.

At least our fans were watching F. Delisa's run in the Homecoming game.

"You may not like my dust, sir, but leave your hands off me" (quoth Jim Hines before one of many sparking efforts).



John Manthey could get out of this one . . . don't put it past him.

Pat Durkin was piling up some yardage in the Homecoming game against the Ignatius Wovles.

"See no evil, speak no evil, hear no evil . . ." seems not to be the case here as from right: Fathers McConville, Turcich and Stobba reflect a crisis.

The crowds were as big as ever . . . Homecoming or otherwise . . . and stayed even after a hard loss.

Say, buddy, you wouldn't be trying to sneak by, would ya? (Jim Derik)

For a team which showed so much promise as Bantams and Flies as this year's senior hoopsters, the children were not the father of the men (which translated means they didn't come up to snuff.) For all the great ability tied up in the senior team — with men like J. Jaros (Most Valuable Player) and Fuzzie Urich (Most Improved Player) — the heavies actually did not realize their potential.

The lights were a different story for fairly obvious reasons. There was spunk and zip and playing together. Some fugitives from the football team gave up jobs and time to beef-up the junior team. There were such game green-horns (playing varsity basketball for the first time) as D. Hudek (Most Improved Player) and H. Norris. Pat Ormsby too (Most Valuable Player) helped spark the team.

That the lights made the Play-offs was something of a feather in their caps, but that the heavies had beaten Carver, the state runner-up, in practice also left something of a pleasant taste to linger on.

Joes

Mendel's two colorful coaches are seen here in their added (they're top-notch teachers too) and official capacity, going each through his own unrehearsed and matchless routine. Whether they win or lose, the coach's lot is a weather-vane of emotions from black gloom to triumphant smiles wreathing his face. Joe McGee has spent over ten years at Mendel and Joe Phelan about half as much; but both, in devoted and undivided concern for Mendel's name on the field and for Mendel's athletes themselves.

The two Joes themselves had been associated together through many years of their schooling and time still finds them both sparking up the life of the school.

Get in there, Charley . . . but listen, don't get caught.

Say, ref, you want to know something; you're missing a very good game.

Ref, you've got such pretty teeth, why don't you bite the basketball (or something like that).

What do you think will happen to the price of sugar cane ...

Bowling

Running more regularly and continuously than most other sports at Mendel, the intramural league occupied close to a hundred men spread over some twenty teams. The cream of these keglers made up the traveling Team which in both Senior and Junior divisions made the Catholic League playoffs, with the Juniors striking home as City Champs, and the Seniors walking off with the South Section trophy and title.

Baseball

You take a cut if George gives you a chance.

The 1962 version of the Monarchs faced a real rebuilding job. Gone from the scene were pitchers Bill Caul, Gerry Purcell, Don Kolosh, and Rick Barder. Even Pete Seiler left to become a shot-putter on the track team and deprive his team of his singing on the bus. However, Mike Vig filled in without the singing. Other new-comers joined the veteran George "Grub" Goes, the talented left hand hurler. From the Frosh-Soph came able relief man Zenon Rawley. And lefty Dan Zajeski changed from a part-time first baseman to a full time pitcher with the best "move"

T. Milani, K. Glon, R. Smith, F. Ganser, H. Suerth: "Now, Henry, this is how it's done."

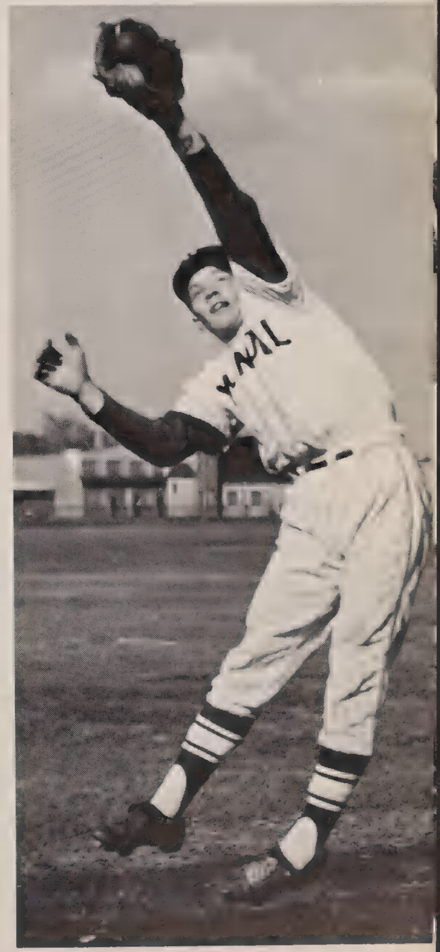
P. Conroy: One Martian sneaking up on another Martian.

to first base on the pick-off play . . . Michael "Pat" Conroy gave us the best catching in the league and Tom Etten was his competent understudy. From the first this was a team that could bounce back as they once showed in going from a shut out to an 18 hit attack. Team play characterized by the hustle of Steve "We've-got-'em-on-the-run" Kashirsky to the inspirational play of short-stop Frank Ganser was the quality that made the Monarchs a strong contender.

F. Ganser: There is only one "Mr. Shortstop."



R. Smith: Basketball was never like this.

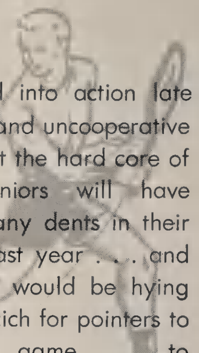
Tennis



Tennis moved into action late in a laggard and uncooperative spring . . . but the hard core of returning seniors will have banged out any dents in their armor from last year . . . and new and old would be hying to Father Turcich for pointers to sharpen their game . . . to clinch some victories for Mendel.

Golf

ROW 1: M. Giogrande, M. Shaver, R. Brunson, D. Gabbert; ROW 2: R. Traverso, P. Rebrovich, Z. Rawley, T. Ricewicz.

Under the competent, expert coaching of Mr. Jim Diamond, a strong Mendel team brought Mendel the Catholic League trophy, senior division, at the end of last year. With that full team turning out again this spring, past experience and persistent training could bring more honor to Mendel.

When Broadway Came to Mendel

What a Blast

. . . It was a Very Sweet Show

Six weeks' time . . . that's all it took . . . for a seven nights' stand . . . A cast and crew of four hundred strong, made even more attractive by being half made up of girls . . . became a well-knit group under the capable direction of Mr. Joe Hayes, whose wide New York background in musical and variety shows . . . produced a show that stirred several thousand in its short run . . . The show's moderator Fr. James Murphy, O.S.A., assisted by Fr. Joseph Stobba, O.S.A., and Fr. Thomas Koenig, O.S.A., coped with the numerous details of Mendel's really first big extravaganza . . . It will not be the last.

Every ball must have its queen — and Jeff Koch's Anne Mahoney got the crown by popular acclaim.

Leading off the fast whirl of proms at the close of the year was the banquet and ball in tribute to the principal of Mendel, Rev. Martin J. O'Neill, O.S.A., taking place for the first time in the spacious lakefront rooms of McCormick Place. Brought together there were school admistrators and teachers, political and civic leaders, benefactors and friends, parents and students. Junior Week

The Ring's the Thing

Long about May, each Junior will say:
"If I've gotten this far, O.K.;
Why not a ring, to prove the thing
In a Mendel sort of way."
Then he shows it around
As Mom squeals and Dad frowns:
"Is it me or education that pays."
So Juniors will walk in the week of their pride,
While orchided mothers will sit at their sides,
And dandy dressed fathers will counsel their sons
And tell them: "In my day . . .
This is not how it 'twas done."
Rings brightly burnished will be blessed anew,

Mass attended together is the best sign of the union that exists between home and school, son and school.

. . . And then, who will forget the prom, surely not the ones we see here . . .

. . . But the rings, that long awaited rings, more than just a stutus symbol but signs of loyalty, are blessed by Father O'Rourke, Moderator of the Junior Class.

MENDEL CATHOLIC H

And Mass together attended, too.
They'll be dancing the Prom through
With all their close friends,
Surrounded with settings

If some heads are higher in halls, to a man,
You'll find them each wearing a ring on his hand.

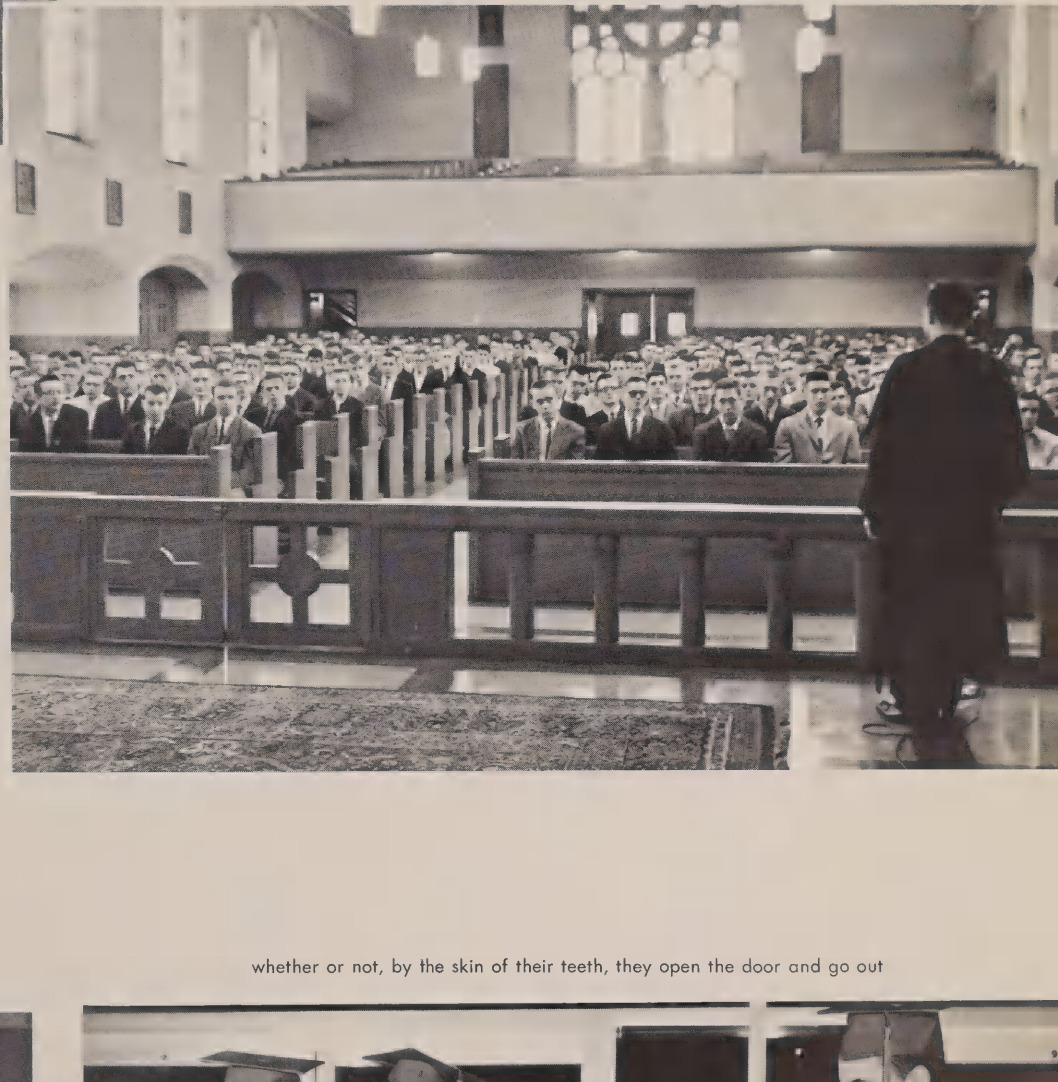
MICELLE

Gregor Mendel's science-minded sons on a school-wide basis . . . (130 entrants with 100 select projects) . . . displayed a budding grasp of science from aerodynamics, to the eye of a cow, down to synthetic rubies . . . to 450 persons, proud parents and other impressed people.

Senior Scenes

Somehow, someday, somewhere, a man begins to think beyond the narrow limits of a class room . . . that past the door, graduation is just a start, really . . .

Seriously, silently, and the future no longer seems distant



. . . as the senior retreat emphasizes the fact of a responsible life

. . . in whatever position attracts them

whether or not, by the skin of their teeth, they open the door and go out

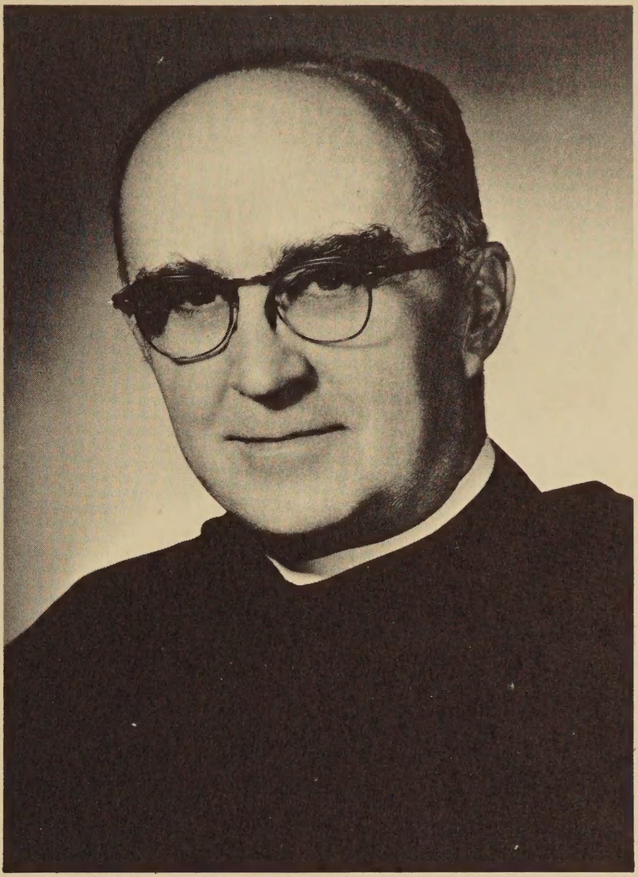
. . . Only the Commencement which will originate in Arie Crown Theatre of McCormick place for the first time at the start of another decade of Mendel's history . . . which in the theme of the Monarch closes here for the class of '62 . . . but whose own history remains expectantly open and providentially guided.

". . . And they who have done good shall come forth unto resurrection of life." John 5.29



Rev. Frederick J. Winn, OSA

Father Winn's life was marked with three milestones. The first was his birth in Lawrence, Massachusettes, on March 18, 1906. The second was his ordination on June 11, 1935, in the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. The third was his death on April 24, 1962, at Mendel.

Half of Mendel's history as a school had been fathered under Father Winn during his six years as Prior for three of which he was also Procurator. While stationed for fourteen years at Cascia Hall in Tulsa, Oklahoma, he was likewise Procurator and Prefect of Discipline. From 1950 to 1953 he was procurator of St. Rita High School. In 1953 Father was made Procurator of St. Mary's Church, Rockford, Illinois, and in 1956 took up the couble post of Procurator and Prior of Mendel Catholic High School.

When Father Winn passed the last milestone left in the life of a priest, he had only to receive what rewards were his from the Eternal High Priest, Jesus Christ.

"Therefore, we must pray at all times for the souls of the departed, for thus shall we be charitable, thus shall we be kind and merciful, thus shall we ourselves escape an unhappy death." XLIV Sermon of St. Augustine to the Brethern in the desert.
